

Nadia & Cyril
BOURGNE

DOMAINE
LA MADURA
SAINT-CHINIAN

GRAND VIN White 2014

Vin de Pays d'Oc

Soil:	Clay-and limestone (sauvignon), schist (piquepoul)
Grape variety:	Sauvignon 80 %, Piquepoul 20 %
Harvest:	By hand, in small crates, with sorting
Harvest start date:	September 2 to 3
Vinification:	Slow pressing – Settling Fermentation in 1-wine barrels (50 %) and 2-wine barrels (50 %)
Maturing:	In barrels on the lees, with stirring
Alcohol content:	13,5 % vol.
Packaging:	75 cl Bordeaux bottles

Tasting notes:

This wine combines a number of aromas to form a complex, soft, mellow bouquet. These include hazelnut and roasted almonds, smoky notes and floral notes such as heather. These aromas are also present on the palate, supported by a full, balanced structure that offers a delightful freshness.

Tasting suggestions:

Fresh and well structured, this wine may be served with a wide range of dishes: fish, especially in a sauce, white meat, cheese or even foie gras.